

- 4.2 Supplier must notify UCL of its unconditional acceptance or rejection of UCL's offer in writing (which may be by email) within five days of the date the offer is made by UCL or such other period as UCL may agree in writing (including by email). If UCL does

- (a) comply with the security and safety policies and regulations from time to time in force on those premises and all instructions of UCL notified to Supplier in relation to its access to such premises (including the removal of any persons where required by UCL); and
- (b) leave such premises in no worse condition than those con termination or expiry, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination or expiry.

20 Insurance